

Muriel Buiatti joins Interparfums as CSR Project Manager

Muriel Buiatti joins Interparfums as CSR Project Manager to assist the CSR Executive Committee, established in 2021, in achieving its goals.

A graduate of the French engineering school, Ecole Polytechnique, Muriel exercised various responsibilities, notably in Research & Development, at L'Oréal for 13 years. After completing her Master's degree in Sustainable Development in 2006, she founded Commenterre, an agency specialized in helping companies address their CSR issues.

Philippe Santi, Executive Vice President, commented: "Muriel will contribute her considerable expertise and extensive experience in dealing with these increasingly complex and important issues for society and the planet by giving us the benefit of her practical and pragmatic vision in line with the Group's values."

Muriel Buiatti added: "I am delighted to have the opportunity of participating in the Interparfums adventure by spearheading and coordinating the adoption of a CSR approach by all teams. We will address the many expectations in this area by applying a pragmatic and methodological approach to strengthen the company's performances in terms of environmental, social and governance issues."
